Prefectural Statistics Online

The most exhaustive statistical resource on the history of Japan between Meiji and post-war Showa

Total in 24 modules (divided into 4 periods and 6 regions)

- Includes Approximately 1,800,000 pages (900,000 images), over 1,500,000 tables and figures, each assigned with a unique ID.

Why PSO?

1. Unique ID for each individual table and figure
2. 24 original categories
3. User-oriented approach to UI design

Enhance user experience with increased searchability and discoverability!

Visit j-dac.jp/RISA and try a free search today!
Entering into an access agreement involves purchasing permanent access rights to the material. To enter into an access agreement you will need to provide an IP address for the institution to which you belong. For further details contact our international division at intl_bns_dpt@maruzen.co.jp.

Japan Digital Archives Center (J-DAC) is a joint enterprise between MARUZEN-YUSHODO and Dai Nippon Printing. Inspired by the insatiable curiosity of humanity that drives its everlasting pursuit for knowledge, the mission of J-DAC is to provide a multidisciplinary archival platform for researchers in the humanities and social sciences through the collection and consolidation of various cultural and historical records of Japan.